

The Journal OF THE House of Representatives

Number 17

Wednesday, March 24, 2010

The House was called to order by the Speaker at 11:00 a.m.

Prayer

The following prayer was offered by Pastor Mike Brown of the First Baptist Church of Cross City, upon invitation of Rep. Bembry:

Heavenly Father, as the work of the Legislature continues, we pause to acknowledge Your presence with us. And we confess that You are worthy of honor and praise, and our complete trust. I stand today to intercede for the men and women in this place who are responsible for leading our great state. Grant them wise and understanding hearts. Allow their deliberations to bring forth solutions that will bless the people under their care.

We remember this day those brave individuals who wear the uniforms of our state and country, especially those who stand in harm's way to protect our lives and preserve our freedoms. Grant them courage and shield them from harm. We bless the memory of Captain Chad Reed, Sr., and others who have fallen in the line of duty. Never allow us to forget them; continue to comfort their families and heal their hearts. Allow their sacrifices to challenge us to live every moment of our lives with passion and to inspire us on to selfless service for others.

We pray for those across our land who are sick, disabled, discouraged, fearful and lonely, confused, the infirm, the incarcerated, and those who are destitute. Infuse us with the conviction that we are, indeed, our brothers' and sisters' keepers. Grant us the compassion to bear their burdens with them and move us to action on their behalf.

Dear Father, pardon our shortcomings according to the greatness of Your lovingkindness. Prolong our lives. Protect our leaders and make them noble, and make us a virtuous people. When this day of opportunity comes to an end, and we've done our best, may we rest knowing that You're watching over us every moment, walking with us every step, and will reward everything we do in Your great name. Amen.

Moment of Silence

At the request of Rep. Bembry, the House observed a moment of silence in memory of Captain Chad Allen Reed, Sr. of Cross City, who was killed in the line of duty on January 14.

The following members were recorded present:

Appropriations and Implementing Bills Procedures

The Honorable Larry Cretul
Speaker, Florida House of Representatives

March 23, 2010

Dear Mr. Speaker:

The following report is submitted pursuant to Rule 10.11(c) for the purpose of establishing the procedures for debate on third reading of the GAA and related Implementing and Conforming Bills.

Final debate on third reading of the bills considered on the floor on April 1, 2010 shall be limited to no more than the time specified below, with the time equally divided between the Majority and Minority parties. From this allotted time, the Speaker's floor manager will open and close each bill. The floor manager shall designate time to open and close, not to exceed 5 minutes each, and communicate that time to the Clerk. After opening the bill, the floor managers from the Majority and Minority parties shall be alternately recognized until their time runs out. Time not utilized is lost.

The Minority Leader and the Speaker may each designate one floor manager. The floor managers may speak in debate and yield time to other Members to debate. Recognitions of floor managers must go through the Speaker. A Member may not be recognized more than once in debate on each bill.

No Member may be recognized for debate unless a floor manager yields time to that Member.

There will be no other debate on these bills on April 1, 2010.

The time limitations for the bills are as follows:

General Appropriations Bill 5001 (PCB CEED 10-02)	260 minutes (130 minutes per side)
All other GAA/implementing/conforming bills	3 minutes each bill

Sincerely,
Bill Galvano, Chair
 Rules & Calendar Council

On motion by Rep. Galvano, by the required two-thirds vote, the above report was adopted.

Motions Relating to Council and Committee References

On motion by Rep. Galvano, by the required two-thirds vote, HB 1543 was withdrawn from further consideration of the House.

House Resolutions Adopted by Publication

At the request of Rep. Hukill—

HR 9001—A resolution recognizing November 15-21, 2010, as "Spinal Cord Injury Awareness Week" in Florida.

WHEREAS, the central nervous system is made up of two parts, the brain and the spinal cord, and

WHEREAS, the spinal cord is considered the "information superhighway" of the body because it contains bundles of neurons that carry signals to and from the brain, controlling many bodily functions, and

WHEREAS, after a spinal cord injury occurs, damaged neurons can no longer emit signals to or from the brain, and the injured person suffers permanent sensory loss and loss of muscle control, and

WHEREAS, currently there are approximately 259,000 individuals in the United States who have sustained a spinal cord injury, and

WHEREAS, it is estimated that the annual incidence of spinal cord injury in the United States, not including those who die at the scene of an accident, is approximately 12,000 new cases each year, and

WHEREAS, the most common age for spinal cord injuries is 19 years old, with 30 percent of all injuries occurring between the ages of 17 and 23, and 52 percent of all injuries occurring between the ages of 16 and 30, and

WHEREAS, more than 80 percent of spinal cord injuries occur in men and nearly 20 percent occur in women, and

WHEREAS, the four leading causes of spinal cord injury for both men and women are auto accidents, falls, acts of violence, and recreational sporting activities, and

WHEREAS, the average annual cost of care for individuals who have a spinal cord injury ranges from $236,000 to $800,000 the first year after injury, with an estimated lifetime cost ranging between $500,000 and $3 million depending on the severity of injury, and

WHEREAS, in the past 16 years, scientists have made major breakthroughs in understanding how to encourage damaged neurons to regenerate and restore function and how to improve the quality of life for patients in areas such as infertility and pain management, and

WHEREAS, the Darrell Gwynn Foundation has worked to help fund research aimed at finding a cure for paralysis, as well as improving the overall quality of life for individuals with paralysis, and

WHEREAS, the Darrell Gwynn Foundation will spend the week of November 15-21, 2010, working with local governments and schools to educate Floridians about the causes of and treatments for spinal cord injuries, as well as informing the public on how to prevent these injuries from taking place, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida:

That November 15-21, 2010, is recognized as "Spinal Cord Injury Awareness Week" in the State of Florida.

—was read and adopted by publication pursuant to Rule 10.16.

At the request of Rep. G. Thompson—

HR 9025—A resolution commending The Links, Incorporated, for its work in Florida.

WHEREAS, The Links, Incorporated, is a highly respected international organization consisting of more than 12,000 professional, accomplished, and dedicated women of African ancestry in 270 chapters, located in 42 states, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of the Bahamas, with a mission and purpose of friendship and community service, and

WHEREAS, members of The Links are role models, mentors, activists, and volunteers who work toward purposeful public service with educational, cultural, and civic commitments through four functional facets — International Trends and Services, National Trends and Services, the Arts, and Services to Youth, and

WHEREAS, the National Trends and Services facet of The Links, Incorporated, also encompasses service related to three Linkages, including education, health and wellness, and legislative work, which highlights and addresses concerns of the organization in these areas and also affects African Americans and society, and

WHEREAS, the Southern Area of The Links, Incorporated, announced that childhood obesity, which according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) is a public health epidemic that poses one of the most urgent threats to the health and well-being of children and their families, shall be its focused program initiative, and

WHEREAS, the Southern Area of The Links, Incorporated, has officially launched its Childhood Obesity Initiative and simultaneously announced its partnership with other health organizations to provide resources to support this initiative with chapters located throughout the Southern Area, and

WHEREAS, Links from around the State of Florida have assembled on March 25, 2010, to demonstrate their support for the elimination of childhood obesity and to focus their efforts on establishing, supporting, and continuing to identify those programs aimed at preventing childhood obesity and to encourage Legislators to monitor, implement, and seek progress on this issue through legislation, and

WHEREAS, Representative Audrey Gibson and Representative Geraldine F. Thompson are members of The Links, Incorporated, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida:

That this body does pause in its deliberations to pay its respects to the dedicated efforts and example of the Southern Area of The Links, Incorporated, led by Link Mary F. Currie, Area Director, in its successful campaign to eliminate childhood obesity and support those programs that support this initiative and assist to create a better quality of life for the children of this state.

At the request of Rep. N. Thompson—

HR 9045—A resolution recognizing the outstanding achievements in educational leadership of Cynthia Phillips-Luster and Priscilla Ribeiro and congratulating them on their recognition as the Florida Department of Education's Achievement Award winners for 2010.

WHEREAS, schools need highly effective principals and assistant principals in order to promote and lead successful students and schools, and

WHEREAS, the Florida Department of Education's Principal Achievement Award for Outstanding Leadership was established in 1988 to recognize exemplary principals for their contributions to their schools and communities, and

WHEREAS, the Florida Department of Education's Outstanding Assistant Principal Achievement Award was established in 1997 to recognize exemplary assistant principals for their contributions to a successful learning environment, and

WHEREAS, these programs honor school leaders who consistently organize and carry out initiatives that increase student performance, promote safe schools, and establish partnerships with parents and community members, and

WHEREAS, the Florida Department of Education presented the 2010 Principal Achievement Award for Outstanding Leadership to Cynthia Phillips-Luster, of James Stephens International Academy in Lee County, a school that serves more than 700 students in grades K-8, and

WHEREAS, Principal Phillips-Luster is a leader who honors diversity, can solve complex problems related to the educational process, has mastered the use of technology in retrieving data to make important decisions about learning for all students, and has led her teachers and students to ever-increasing levels of achievement, and

WHEREAS, the Florida Department of Education presented the 2010 Assistant Principal Achievement Award to Priscilla Ribeiro, of Cypress Bay

High School in Broward County, a school that serves more than 3,700 students in grades 9-12, and

WHEREAS, Assistant Principal Ribeiro is dedicated to children, committed to equity and access for all students so that they may achieve their highest goals, possesses superior interpersonal skills with all stakeholders in the community, shows compassion for students and adults, has the ability to motivate the faculty and students, incorporates innovative programs, and maintains a sense of accountability in all of her work, and

WHEREAS, the Principal and Assistant Principal recognition programs raise awareness of these extraordinary individuals and elevate their standing in their communities and schools, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida:

That, on behalf of the residents of this state, the House of Representatives recognizes and congratulates Cynthia Phillips-Luster and Priscilla Ribeiro on their selection by the Florida Department of Education as the 2010 Achievement Award winners for outstanding leadership in education.

—was read and adopted by publication pursuant to Rule 10.16.

At the request of Rep. Burgin—

HR 9047—A resolution recognizing March 26, 2010, as "Go Red For Women Day" in Florida.

WHEREAS, cardiovascular disease is a leading cause of death among women in this nation, and

WHEREAS, although only 21 percent of women consider cardiovascular disease their greatest health risk, cardiovascular diseases claimed the lives of nearly 430,000 American women in 2006, more than cancer, chronic lower respiratory disease, Alzheimer's disease, and accidents combined, and

WHEREAS, in 2010, the direct and indirect costs of cardiovascular diseases and stroke in the United States are estimated at over $503.2 billion, and

WHEREAS, the "Go Red For Women" campaign encourages women to learn about the signs and symptoms of cardiovascular diseases by using tools such as the "Go Red For Women" Heart CheckUp and Choose To Move Countdown and by having an open dialogue with their healthcare providers, and

WHEREAS, the goals of the "Go Red For Women" campaign of increasing awareness and empowering women with the knowledge and tools to reduce their risk for cardiovascular diseases can save thousands of lives each year, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida:

That in recognition of the importance of the ongoing fight against cardiovascular diseases, March 26, 2010, is recognized as "Go Red For Women Day" in the State of Florida, and all citizens are encouraged to show their support for women and the fight against cardiovascular diseases by commemorating this day with the wearing of the color red.

—was read and adopted by publication pursuant to Rule 10.16.
